A NEW CLUB AT SARDIS—OLYMPIC LIFTING

Coaches and athletes know that increased power will help performance in any sport. To get power we need to have strength with speed. Explosive lifting techniques such as cleans and snatches as well as various squats and dead-lifts are used by almost all college and pro athletes.

Enter Sardis Secondary's new RCMP Liaison Officer, Constable Joel Tobin who is a certified Cross Fit instructor and a highly qualified Olympic Lifting coach. With Mr. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. Elliott helping out, Constable Tobin has been training a motivated group of 15-20 athletes on Monday and Wednesday afternoons since March.

The new club is open to all interested student athletes who would like to learn the challenging movements that will enable them to improve sport specific performance. See Mr. Fitz, Mrs. Elliott or Constable Tobin for more information.
